Catscratch Fever

When Skinny Malink meets Rosemary Fingerhat, she discovers a new world with cats as its focus.

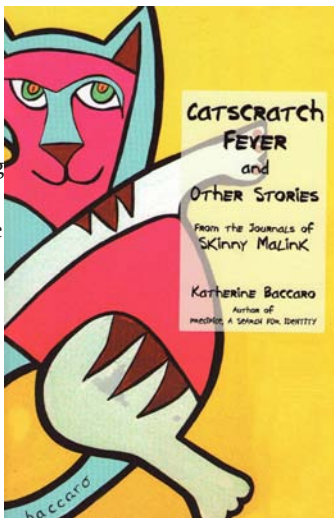

Skinny, whose real name is Sally, is introduced to the Ailurophile Society, a vast association of cat admirers. The only requirement to be a member is cohabitation with a very special cat, or cats. The society is quite vast.

With Rosemary to guide her, Skinny meets some of the most unique people in town - all of whom are devoted to serving cats of exceptional intelligence, beauty virtue and charm. There are cats that need love, cats that need a bath and cats that get themselves and their owners into all sorts of trouble. But in their own ways, they are mysterious, adorable and inspiring.

As the duo attempts to record the stories of the society, they find themselves collecting amazing tales, solving family dilemmas and mending broken hearts, all while enjoying the company of some very special felines in Catscratch Fever and Other Stories.

Katherine Baccaro spent her career teaching in American overseas schools before retiring to Sierra Vista, Arizona.

She is the author of Precipice and now spends her time writing and ministering to the demands of her cats, Daisy and PoPo.

In Precipice we meet the charming, conniving Crystal Autry, a young woman from a tiny town in Alabama, adrift in post-World War II Europe. Crystal is on a quest, searching for easy amours and accommodations... as well is a missing link in her own story.

Insinuating herself into the villa of the rich and mysterious Miranda, Crystal sets out to charm her sashay into her elevated society. Miranda's erratic behavior is mystifying, but Crystal sees that only as encouragement to her own plans. Shrouded in regrets and harboring deep pain, Miranda and Crystal are both damaged by their pasts, uncertain of their futures.

Set in the gorgeous landscape of the Mediterranean coast in the late 1940s, with an outrageous cast of characters, Precipice is the riveting story of two women haunted by their pasts and flirting with catastrophe. In the end both must decide whether to embrace a life of deceit and despair, or dare to follow the path that leads to the precipice.

Katherine Baccaro is retired from her position as a teacher in the Department of Defense Schools. She now writes full-time using her international experiences as the inspiration for her work.
